

Living in NJ. A state that requires people to work and work long hours because of commuting, traffic and just corporate demands the last thing I want to do between 5pm-8pm is answer my telephone and have someone try to sell me a better mortgage rate or anything else when I'm trying to have dinner with my husband. Please do not lift the restrictions on the DO NOT CALL LIST.